

CLASS WILL

John Adams leaves his name to Thomas Schronce.

Roy Adams leaves his tan complexion to George Bounds.

Robert Alexander leaves his coordination to Tommy Minton.

Gary Allen leaves his blinding speed to Lynn Bounds.

Hugh Allison leaves his black curls to Kevin King.

Jeannie Bates wills her dog pound to Gail Brock.

Nancy Beadles wills her 4.0 average to Nancy Reed.

Pam Bennett leaves her ability to flirt to Landra Bailey.

David Black wills his long underwear to Mark Walker providing he doesn't take them to the Beta Club Conventions.

Melvin Blair wills his dainty hands to Pat Foust.

David Blair leaves his thick hair to Ed Shelby.

Landon Bolinger leaves his love for basketball to Jim Bell.

Ronnie Boling leaves his flat top to Ricky Bozenan.

Stella Bounds leaves her nickname "Stuggy" to Priscilla Lunsford.

Linda Bowers leaves her jet black hair to Shirley Cates.

Chris Bozeman leaves his fighting ability to Coach Hatcher.

Billy Brabson wills his ability to fall and not to get hurt to Phil Ballard.

David Bray leaves his freckles to Becky Cain.

Tony Bridges wills his Elvis Presley hair-do to Mr. Trammel.

Caroline Brock leaves her long hair to Joe Strevel.

Mike Brooks leaves his bulliness to Steve Oliver.

Sandy Brooks leaves her ability to talk in circles to Diane Boling.

Brenda Brown leaves her ability to stay out of school and still make good grades to Iris Blakely.

Debbie Buffalow leaves her ability to date four boys at the same time to Ellen Williams.

Carolyn Bryant leaves her asthma to Marlyn McMillan.

Larry Burchan wills his sexy ways to Jim Hinkle.

Robert Burnett leaves his hair and sideburns to Kin Patterson.

Melissa Burns leaves Herbert Lewis to anyone who will take him.

Rhonda Butler wills her big mouth to Jeannie Nichols.

Butch Byrd wills his curly hair to David Ownby.

Danny Cameron leaves his wild sweat shirts to Terry Doane.

Gary Cameron leaves his Dennis the Menace looks to Danny Oglesby.

Phyllis Carnichael leaves her loud voice to Homer Cates.

Janie Carpenter wills her love for Doug Turner to Sandy Reed.

Kenny Cash leaves his weight to Billy McGaha.

San Cash leaves his cash to next years Senior Class.

Patsy Cates wills her build to Linda Coleman.

Ronnie Cates leaves his shyness to David Dickens.

Kenneth Chesney leaves his likiability to Tommy Hickman.

Kay Cloniger wills her sex appeal to Nancy Maples.

Beverly Cole leaves Carter High to her little brother and sister.

Taylor Collins leaves his laundry truck to David Little.

Laura Cook leaves her ability to twist to Alice Forgety.

Betty Covington leaves her excess weight to Janet Anderson.

Kathy Cowan leaves whatever she's got, if she has anything to Patsy Cardwell.

John Cox leaves his drinking ability to Bob Burroughs.

Wanda Crusenberry wills her acting ability to Jerry Cates.

Billy Crawford wills his athletic ability to Terry Lowe.

Tony Crawford wills his gracefulness to Jack Bright.

Kenneth Creswell leaves his love for country music to Larry Jo McCubbins.

Judy Daniels wills her flaming red hair to Sandy Collins.

Patty Daniels wills her feminity to Jeanne Mink.

Curtis Davis leaves his masculinity to Jimmy Lowery.

Gail Branson leaves one of her Gary's to Libby Snyder.

Kenneth Davis leaves his seat on the radiator outside Dial Staff to a boy who takes shop next year.

Tony Dickerson leaves his dinky ears to George Webster.

Sharon Douglas leaves her parrott to anybody with a lot of crackers.

Eddie Earl wills his tall, dark, and handsome looks to Richard Mitchell.

Donnie Easterday leaves his ability to stretch a tale to Steve Bell.

Tim Ellis wills his position as stage manager to Victor Hart providing he keeps his hands off the girls back stage.

Bobby Emmert wills his girl friend in Atlanta to anyone who can afford to go see her.

Barney Evans leaves his position as sex symbol of Carter to Steve Miller.

Jerry Faulkner leaves his driving abilities to Mike and Mark Walker.

Delores Frazier wills her sweet disposition to Dale King.

Jerry Fisher leaves his gorgeous tenor voice to Kathy Roberts.

Sam Frazier wills his ability as a great artist to Beverly Cockrum.

Vickie Frazier leaves her ability to do the "Tighten-up" to Sherry Walker.

David French leaves Barbara Stringfield to Steve Roach.

Pat Gibson wills her place in the singers to Deborah Murrell.

Steve Griffey leaves his drawings of Engines to Kathy Chesney.

Judy Hammond leaves her Judy Lee Jewerly to anyone who'll sell it.

Carolyn Hancock leaves with her gun cocked.

Tommy Hancock leaves his girlie drawings to Chip Rasar.

Johnny Hawkins wills his ability to drive like a madman to David Nichols.

Mike Heath leaves his growing ability to Gerald Walker.

Vassie Hensley wills her great tumbling ability to Kay Luttrell.

James Hickman leaves his looks to Donnie Branson.

Becky Hickman leaves her beans to anyone who sells Glade Air Freshener.

Bob Hickman leaves his cruising ability to Bobby Whillock.

Nancy Hillard leaves her sexy hair to Linda Shropshire.

Bruce Hodge leaves his tractor and plow to Lynn Pilgrim.

Delores Hodge leaves her dimples to Miss Betty Underwood.

Donna Hodge wills her twiggy figure to Becky Neal.

Karen Holden leaves her ability to tease Mr. Dye to Donna Delapp.

James Horner leaves his shyness to Jan Wright.

Shirley Horner leaves her pretty nails to Patty Branch.

Nancy Huffaker leaves her cute little pug nose to Coach Kinnane.

Myrtle Ingram leaves her loud voice to Pat Wilson.

Rose Mary Jackson leaves her P. E. ability to Terry Swaggerty.

Ronald Johnson leaves his cowboy boots to Bill Lusby.

Tena Johnson leaves her job at K-Mart to Joyce Brooks.

Billy Jones leaves his wavy blonde hair to Bobby Trent.

Roger Jones leaves Donnie Branson five hens that lay eggs filled with bourban.

Elizabeth Jones leaves her job as a "candy stripper" to Janie McMillan.

Connie Karras leaves her seat in bookkeeping to Ronnie Johnson.

Vickie Keener wills her witty personality to Myrtle Monday.

Brenda Kennedy leaves her beautiful matching hair and eyes to Freddie Mattress.

Richard Kennedy leaves his volleyball arm to Jan Wright.

Tommy Kinger leaves his sleepiness to Richard Vest.

Alna King leaves her image as a "bookworm" to Paula Zachary.

James King leaves his excuses to be excused to Wally Moles.

Rick Lane leaves his cute physique to (Mike Randolph) Pumpkin.

Doug Leake leaves his sideburns to Richard Mitchell.

Emily Lee leaves her place in Guidance Office to Ann Richards.

Patsy Leek leaves her pretty eyes to Herbert Wilhite.

Marlyn Leisy leaves her ability to argue to Jeannie Bradley because she knows she will do a good job of it.

Herbert Lewis leaves his stubbornness to David Henderson.

Paul Lewis leaves his quiet ways to Billy Ray Jones.

Rhonda Livesay leaves her ability to go with a lot of boys at one time and not get caught to Marsha Hancock.

Joe Long leaves his guitar place in the Singers to Joe Neubert.

Kennedy Loveday leaves his chewing gum to John Lindsey, providing he doesn't bug Mrs. Kelly with it.

Dennis Loveday leaves his seat in Drama class to Brenda Webster.

Mary Lou Lowery leaves her desk in home room to Molly Chesney.

Junior Loy wills his great big Colgate smile to Lester Bailey.

Donna Lusk wills her pink tights to a new B-Team cheerleader.

David Maples leaves his "River Boat Gambler" sideburns to Coach Mason.

Ronnie Maples leaves his perfect attendance record to Jackie Williams.

Wayne Maples leaves, "he hopes."

Jimmy Mathis leaves his ability to fall over first base to Bill Eddlemon.

Betty McCann leaves her quiet ways to Sandy Reed.

Dicky McCarty wills his ability to change girlfriends every other week to David Monday.

Danny McCloud leaves his Almond Joy candy bar to Mr. Trammal.

Guy McCloud leaves his siesta in Business English to Larry Walker if he will at least take a pencil to class.

Steve McCulley leaves his nickname "Crusher" to anyone who can live up to it.

Clara McLemore leaves her seat outside the office to Steve Randles.

Ginny Meador leaves Kenny to a Wolf Trainer.

Deana Merritt leaves her feminine voice to Joy Blake.

D. L. Messer leaves his ability to go fishing instead of going to school to Bill Spurling.

Lorretta Messer wills her table at Friday's to Sandra Taylor.

Donnie Mills leaves his red hair to Steve Hutchins.

Candy Mink wills her sugar sweet ways to Angie Kingston.

Vickie Monday leaves her beautiful black hair to Audrey Willard.

Joe Moreland leaves his parking place to Jim Bell.

Sandy Neal leaves her reserved place at the River Breeze to Meredith Tucker.

Mona Nichols leaves all her different kinds of medicine to anyone who gets sick, but especially to Melody Clift.

Linda Norton wills her athletic ability to Terri Armstrong.

Gail Pack leaves without her single life.

Brenda Parton leaves her place as President of Thespians to David Bounds.

Jane Perry leaves her favority spot, Lochamora Heights, to anyone who wants it.

Jerry Reed leaves his ability to take ribbons and bows out of girls hair to anyone who can do it and not get caught.

Jean Renfro wills her GI Blues to Sherry Galloway.

Kathy Richards wills her height to Glenda Pack.

Ernie Roberts leaves his bad language to Chuck Luttrell.

Betty Robinson wills her delicate ways to her sister, Robbie.

Ricky Rose leaves his baseball ability to someone Coach Mason likes.

Johnny Rosenbalm leaves his place in the Boys Chorus to David Nichols.

Judy Phelps wills her quiet ways to Patty Learn.

Wayne Pike leaves Carter--thank goodness!

Terry Pollard leaves his ability to fight to Larry Lawson.

Janette Randles leaves her mini skirts and white short shorts to Cindy Rush.

Ronnie Russel wills his position as Co-Editor of the Dial to Brenda Mouser.

Brenda Scarlett leaves her place in D. E. to anyone who can work and keep up with the soap operas at the same time.

Theresa Schettler just leaves with Bob.

Jerry Sellers leaves Mrs. Bishop with the hope that Mythology class won't be this wild next year.

H. D. Shaw leaves his job at Kroger to some pitiful sucker.

David Sheddan leaves his white shirts and ties to anyone who works at Whiteway next year.

Greg Shipe leaves his job at the News Sentinal to Mike Henderson.

Steve Smith leaves his ability to go steady with only one girl at a time to Steve Hutchens.

Debbie Snyder leaves her ability to have one quarter of college behind her before her high school graduation to some intelligent Junior.

Vickie Snyder leaves her fall to Betty Wyrick.

Jim Spruill leaves his place in Advanced Biology to Kenny Clabo, provided he doesn't blow up Carter.

Gary Stallings leaves his height and black curly hair to Keith Bryant.

David Starling leaves his ability to graduate early to Wayne Bennett.

Janice Stiles leaves her modesty to Vickie Morrell.

Pan Stinnett leaves her ability to find ways to use the phone to Debbie Webster.

Scott Taylor leaves his ability to drive to Mark Walker.

Eugene Thornhill leaves his car to someone who can afford the insurance.

Sherri Thurman leaves her alertness to Victor Hart.

Doug Turner leaves his height to Don Morgan.

Kyle Underwood wills his ability to sleep through all his classes and make passing grades to Vickie Currington.

Gary Watson leaves his drum major headdress to anyone who can hold their head up with it on.

Billy Ray Webster leaves his truck to the Antique Show.

Cretia Whillock leaves her sun tan lotion to Sam Fulton.

Hal Wilhoite wills his height and build to Churck Cowan.

Raymond Williams leaves his bones to the biology class.

Tony Williams leaves his big blue eyes to Don Evans.

Gary Wills wills his last name to the senior Will.

Vickie Wilson wills her baton and majorette abilities to Jenni Waldrop.

Linda Woods leaves her blonde hair to Brenda Wade.

Brenda Wyatt leaves her shyness to Lucille Henderson.